"Living On The Edge"

When reading the New Testament, one thing becomes evident...

The New Testament authors were living on the edge.

So, which edge are we talking about?

Jesus made the distinctions when talking to Pilate when he said, "my kingdom is not of this world."

Two worlds? There must be an edge somewhere between them.

Jesus told Nicodemus that unless we are saved, we couldn't see the Kingdom of God.

We are living in that reality – Two worlds and Two Kingdoms.

Here is a definition for you – Faith is the Power by which we are able to reach from the seen realm, into the unseen realm, and retrieve the unseen.

We can bring the unseen back into the seen realm.

Jesus did that!

He paid taxes with a coin from the mouth of a fish.

He healed people with mud and spit.

He brought the man crucified beside him into Paradise with him.

Two Realms...Two Kingdoms....Two Worlds.

Sounds spooky to those stuck in the seen realm.

That's what happened to Adam in the Garden of Eden – he was consigned to an existence in the Seen Realm.

Thank God that we have been delivered!

Challenge Reminder:

Read five chapters in the Word and pray in tongues for 30 minutes.

"Likewise the Spirit also helps our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit HIMSELF makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God." -Rom. 8:26-27
